

Somatic Experiencing (SE) ®

Traumeheling Norge DA invites in cooperation with

Professors in Psychiatry: Stephen Porges and Sue Carter

Seminar: The Polyvagal Theory : Clinical Implications.
Symbiotic Regulation of the Autonomous Nervous System.
System and Interdependence of Autonomic
Regulation and Oxytocin.

This Seminar has three goals:

- 1. To provide an explicit statement of the Polyvagal Theory.
- 2. To show how the Polyvagal Perspective provides insight into clinical assessment and treatment of numerous conditions.
- 3. To explain the dependence of Autonomic regulation on oxytocin in Social Bonds and regulating Stress Responses in Social Contexts.

Place: The House of the engineers. Kronprinsensgate 17, 0251 Oslo.

Time : The 12.th og 13.th of. May 2011. Time: 09:30-17:00.

Price: 6000 Nok

Student discount: 500 Nok to SE-students SE, and students in Sensorimotoric Psychotherapy Education.

The seminarfee includes, yoghurt, lunch, coffee, tea, fruits and, nuts.

Early bird registration: Before 1. March 2011: 500 Nok

Membership in ESTD enables also discount.

ESTD discount can not be used together with the student discount.

If you unbook within three weeks before seminar start,
there will be no refusal of the seminar fee. Unbooking before 1. of March : 100 % refusal of fee. Unbooking after
1. of March : 50 % refusal of the fee

Registration: www.traumeheling.no
More info contact: traumeheling@gmail.com